WELCOME

TO THE 36TH ANNUAL INTERNATIONAL MR. LEATHER WEEKEND!

IML 36

Welcome to Chicago!

Once again, Chicago opens its doors to the worldwide leather and fetish community as we all join to celebrate in our Family Reunion! Much has changed since we first started in 1979 and, because of each of you, this year is on track to be the biggest IML ever!

This year we are again hosted by The Marriott Downtown Magnificent Mile and we have worked extra hard with them to build on the amazing event they executed for us last year. While it is next to impossible to please every single person who attends, please know everyone on The Marriott and IML staffs will do everything we can to make your experience as trouble-free as possible. If challenges do occur, I ask you to be patient as well as respectful as we try to remedy what comes our way.

Experienced IML guests know the weekend is filled with parties, seminars, mixers, demos and The Vendor Market on the 5th and 7th Floors of the hotel. The connections made with friends new and old alike at any and all of these events will provide experiences and memories to last a lifetime.

Many who come to IML are first timers. To those of you who are, I will just say don't be afraid ... jump in and enjoy the amazing energy IML creates. Yes, there's more to do than there are hours in each day, but, if you pace yourself, you'll be able to explore much and experience all there is to offer, both inside IML as well as our amazing city. If you need some guidance, we have some 300 volunteers who stand ready to assist you.

A little change from last year to remember: Opening Ceremonies on Friday night and the Pecs and Personality event on Saturday will be held at Park West in Lincoln Park. The Contest on Sunday night will again be held at the Harris Theater in Downtown Chicago. Weekend Package holders will have access to the IML Bus System. As is always the case, we ask for a little patience in moving so many people around the city since traffic can be terribly unpredictable.

Finally, it is my sincere hope that you get to explore Chicago a little bit while you are here. There is so much to sightsee and experience, not to mention some of the finest restaurants in the world. But, if you can, step out of the hotel and see why we love Chicago so much.

Each and every one of you are our motivation to make IML better each and every year. We've grown from those 400 in 1979 to what we think could hit 20,000 this year. Because of you. And for that, I sincerely say "Thank You!"

Play hard…play safe…and Welcome to IML!

That Guy by Kirk Williamson, Editor, Nightspots Magazine

Welcome to Chicago and to the official start of gay summer in the Windy City: Memorial Day weekend. It's over this very weekend that bears comes out of hi-bear-nation to gather in festive locales; that "actors" of all talent levels—be they cut or uncut—receive special accolades from the porn community elite; and, most importantly, that we crown (or sash, anyway) and new International Mr. Leather. I am exceedingly proud (and blissfully exhausted) to have assembled this official guide to all of the International Mr. Leather 2014 contests, workshops, auctions, parties, demos, roasts, and so much more activities that make this weekend a jewel in the crown of Chicago's gay community.

Here are a few things to remember over this weekend:

1) Don't forget to explore the city as a whole. The host hotel's location right on the Magnificent Mile puts you mere steps away from some of the finest shopping in the world. Get yourself a CTA (Chicago Transit Authority) pass, hit the "L" trains, and strike out into the city to find world-class restaurants, vibrant nightlife, and friendly, broad-shouldered folks. Consult the list of bars on page 68 and make sure to patronize those businesses who have been there for us all along. And see the official IML calendar on page 18 and the events calendar on page 70 for more events than you can shake a stick at. That is a stick, isn't it?

2) Be safe and respectful. Think back to when you were just a young thing, venturing on your first foray into leather life. How would you have liked to be treated? If you see someone who is new to the scene, or who obviously shows curiosity but isn't yet knowledgeable in the ways of the leather community, take a moment to mentor and to make their experience one that will foster brother/sisterhood and community.

3) Play safe. I ain't gonna lecture you. You know what to do. Do it. Don't make me lecture you.

4) Have a ball (or two, or four ...). It's a party, for Pete's sake!

EMCEE
Lenny Broberg

Broberg is a proud, openly Gay San Francisco Police Officer, internationally recognized Leather personality, competitive Gay Softball League player, highly sought after emcee and auctioneer, and friend and supporter to many segments of the LGBT and larger non-profit community.

Lenny was born in Chicago; moved at an early age to Salem, Wisconsin; attended Iowa State University; and then settled in San Francisco 30 years ago, where he held executive positions at Pacific Bell and the Portman Hotel. In 1995, he fulfilled a life-long dream of enrolling in the San Francisco Police Academy, quickly finding his calling with troubled youth and criminal street gangs. In 2002, he joined the Gang Task Force and in 2010 was promoted to Inspector. He is widely respected as an expert in African-American gang activities, often called upon for expert testimony and conflict resolution.

In 1991, Lenny pursued one of his extracurricular passions, playing softball and becoming a Commissioner of the SF Gay Softball League. He has participated in over 10 Gay Softball World Series and holds a solid reputation as a charismatic coach, star pitcher, and mentor to upcoming talent.

In 1992, another of Lenny's interests came to the forefront as he competed and won the titles of Mr. SF Eagle Leather, Mr. SF Leather, and International Mr. Leather, all in the same year. He remains a prominent figure in the Leather Community, offering guidance to potential title-holders, judging and emceeing contests all over the world, and presenting a positive and intelligent image of the Leather Community.

Over the past 20 years, Lenny has been honored by mayors, the board of supervisors, and state legislators. For his tireless efforts in the non-profit world, he has received significant recognition from the AIDS Emergency, Shanti, Positive Resource Center, STOP AIDS, Pets Are Wonderful Support, Transgender SF, Imperial Court, Ducal Court, SF Gay Men's Chorus, Pride Alliance (SF police officers' LGBT organization), Golden Gate Guards Motorcycle Club, and Alameda County Leather Corps. He has been named Officer of the Month by the SF Police Department, Most Valuable Player by the Gay Softball League, and Man of the Year by the Pantheon of Leather.

More recently, Lenny has broadened his volunteer efforts, masterfully emceeing and auctioning for the Human Rights Campaign (HRC), Gay & Lesbian Alliance Against Defamation (GLAAD), Wild Aid, Friends of Alameda Animal Shelter, Rotary Club, and urban community service agencies. He has co-anchored the live television coverage of the SF Pride Parade for several years. Lenny is thrilled and excited to be back as your weekend MC this year.

ENTERTAINMENT
Well-Strung

One Direction step aside, there's a new kind of boy band on the circuit. The all-male string quartet Well-Strung features classical musicians who sing, putting their own spin on the music of Mozart, Vivaldi, Rihanna, Adele, Lady Gaga, and more. Their debut show sold out Joe's Pub May 1, 2012, in New York after being workshopped at Ars Nova NYC in February. Since then they have played venues across the world such as The Art House in Provincetown, the Leicester Square Theatre in London, 54 Below in New York, House of Blues in New Orleans and Feinstein's in San Francisco.

Well-Strung stars first violinist Edmund Bagnell, second violinist Christopher Marchant, cellist Daniel Shevlin and violist Trevor Wadleigh. Well-Strung's show is directed and co-written by Donna Drake with arrangements by David Levinson. The quartet was formed by producer/co-writer/manager Mark Cortale and Christopher Marchant. Additional arrangements are by Daniel Shevlin, Yair Evnine and Christopher Marchant.

Andy Cross (IML 2013)

San Francisco, CA

Andy was born in Santa Maria, California. San Francisco became his home 11 years ago. Although interested in leather from childhood, his adult introduction to the leather community began at the Powerhouse Bar on Folsom Street and quickly spread from there.

In 2011, Andy was selected as a Bare Chest Calendar man for the 2012 Bare Chest Calendar, helping to raise over $150,000 for AIDS-related charities. He has since served on the Bare Chest Calendar judging committee for the past two years. His title run began with becoming Mr. Powerhouse Leather 2013, and ultimately going on to become Mr. San Francisco Leather 2013. In May 2013, Andy became the 5th International Mr. Leather to hail from San Francisco.

He has done work with the San Francisco Bay Area Leather Alliance, Mr. S Leather, AIDS Emergency Fund, Folsom Street Events, among other national and community organizations.

When he is not too busy traveling, he enjoys watersports, boots, rubber/latex, Daddies, boys, and pretty much everything else.

Chandler Bearden

Atlanta, GA

Chandler Bearden is a native Georgian and has been a resident of Atlanta for nearly 20 years. Chandler was Mr. Atlanta Eagle 2010 and has worked with the LeatherHeart Foundation and also taught SM 101 classes at the Atlanta Eagle and Southeast Leatherfest. His interest in the community extends beyond the leather community, assisting on a variety of levels including Hotlanta Roundup (an event for LGBTs in recovery), Street Meals Volunteer for the homeless, Intergalactic Love Affair (an annual event benefitting various non-profits) and involvement with the Atlanta Meth Task Force.

Career efforts have led him through many creative venues from multimedia design to the body piercing industry, ultimately culminating in a position as Outreach Specialist for the MISTER Program of Positive Impact. While working on the Community PROMISE project at MISTER, he served on forum panels at Emory University and Georgia State College. He was also named Best Male Activist in 2011 and 2013 and a member of the Top 50 Most Influential Persons of Atlanta 2011-2012 by the community.

Tobin Britton

Portland, OR

Tobin Britton has been a longstanding member of the Portland, Oregon Leather Tribe and a queer activist since the early 1990s. He jumped head first into the fray with memberships in a number of the local groups such as Portland Leather Alliance, Rose City Discussion Club, Blackout Leather Productions and Bad Girls. He served as Parade Coordinator and President of Pride Northwest for five years, streamlining many aspects of Portland's large pride festival and parade.

Tobin has held the titles of Ms. Oregon State Leather 2001 and American Leatherwoman 2002 which afforded him the honor of traveling the country as well as abroad as judge, tally master, judges' boy, and contestant handler for numerous large and small titles. He has presented on such topics as knife play, race play, psychological terror, releasing your inner monster and D/s dynamics for many clubs and organizations throughout the country.

He currently serves as President and founding member of The Boiys In Leather Service-Rose City, a volunteer group based on serving its various communities as well as President of Blackout Leather Productions, Inc., the organization responsible for producing the Mr./Ms. Oregon State and Oregon State Bootblack Contests and NW Sash Bash (soon to be revamped into something even more spectacular!).

Tobin is head of a poly household that includes his beautiful wife and boy Justin, girl Joni, pet Tani, pig boy Spike, babygirl Sophia and lovergirl Shae. He enjoys beautiful things and is a proud member of Mama's Family as Mama's Daddiruff and Mama's Warrior Slave and extremely proudly humbled to have been chosen as the NW Regional Pantheon of Leather 2013 Award Winner. Tobin had the honor of being featured on The Logo Channel's Portland, Oregon, edition of Round Trip Ticket to talk about leather. He enjoys boots, cigars, motorcycle riding, boys, girls and the art of the mind fuck. He is an old-school stone butch dyke who prefers male pronouns (if you hadn't noticed). He is overjoyed to be allowed to take part in the big show!

JUDGES

Paul Ciantar

Toronto, Ontario, Canada

Paul (Argo) Ciantar, Canadian Leather Man 2004 and Mr. Leatherman Toronto 2003, is an active and outspoken member of the International Leather Community. As an ambassador of the Toronto Leather Community since November 2002 and the Canadian Leather Community since July 2004, Paul has travelled across North America for Leather events, speaking engagements, media interviews, and fundraising events. He has judged several major Leather contests in both the USA and Canada (including Mr. Edmonton, Mr. Michigan, Mr. San Diego, Mr. & Ms. Vancouver, Mr. Montréal, Mr. Atlantic Canada, Mr. Ottawa, Mr. Toronto, and Oklahoma Mr. Leather). He has organized many highly successful fundraising events for charities like the Toronto People With AIDS Foundation and the Metropolitan Community Church of Toronto; and has continued to support the fundraising efforts of other Toronto Leather Titleholders.

He served for three years as one of the founding directors for the Church Street Fetish Fair. He created the "So You Want To Be Kinky?" series of pansexual Kink/BDSM workshops in 2007 (which continue to this day), and significantly expanded the MLTC Weekend Seminar Program (from six classes to 18) as Chairman of the MLTC Educational Programs Committee (a position he held from 2005 to 2010). He also wrote a regular opinion column for Toronto- and western New York-based "abOUT" magazine, covering the queer and fetish lifestyle for for years.

Paul continues to be very active in the Toronto Leather Community, hosting a monthly "Kink 101" night and (since 2008) the monthly "Pup Night" at the Black Eagle Toronto. He is the founder and Pack Leader of the Black Eagle Kennel Klub, and served as Chief Judge for the Toronto Puppy Contest in 2013 and 2014. He is also well known for his continuing fetish photography work (especially his work for Northbound Leather).

Recipient of the 2005 International Pantheon of Leather "Canadian Award", the 2009 MLTC Courtlan Forsey Award for his lasting community contributions, and the 2011 MLT Titleholder Impact Award, "Mama's Shit Disturber" continues to passionately promote Safer and Smarter BDSM, and the importance of Community Involvement, Education, Mentoring, Respect, and Responsibility through seminars, interviews, writings, and one-on-one conversations.

Will Clark

New York, NY

Over the past 19 years, Will Clark, a former Drummer titleholder and XXX performer, has produced and emceed well over 1,000 fundraising events—including The Bad Boys Pool Party and Cocktails With the Stars in LA, Porn Idol and Porno Bingo in NYC—and raised millions of dollars for hundreds of LGBT non-profits in New York, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Chicago, Atlanta and more.

Recently, Will was honored by the Gay/Lesbian Anti-Violence Project, United for the Ride and New York's Imperial Court for his work in New York's LGBT community. Will resides in New York City and regularly officiates at same-sex weddings. He likes gas masks, football uniforms and straight jackets.

He is honored to be on the IML 2014 judging panel and deeply feels his participation is in memory of Mr. Marcus, Robert Davolt, Daddy Philip Turner and Ralph-Paul Gernhardt, who he was proud to call his role models, his mentors, his inspirations and, most importantly, his friends.

Mike Maez

Denver, CO

Mike Maez is from Denver, CO. He is the owner/photographer at Maez Image, specializing in editorial and fetish photography. Mike also works as a personal trainer where he helps clients achieve their overall health goals.

His leather life began early, as evidenced by childhood photos of him actually wearing leather. He discovered his kinky, leather soul the first time he walked into a leather/fetish shop and realized his leather life had come full circle.

After the passing of a longtime partner, Mike decided to become more active in the leather community. He competed for and won the title Mr. Leather Colorado 2006. He was so proud of the rich history of the title that, in 2009, he took over the reins of the Mr. Leather Colorado Foundation, which produces the Mr. Leather Colorado contest. Under Mike's direction, the Foundation has expanded to produce the Mr. Colorado Rubber and Colorado Bootblack contests. Mike has served as an officer on the Board of Directors for the Rocky Mountain Leather Alliance for the past five years. He was awarded the Leather Heart Award in 2012 by the National Leather Association – Colorado.

Mike is honored to serve as a judge at IML this year. As a past Mr. Leather Colorado and now producer, he is even more honored to serve at IML on the 30th Anniversary of Mr. Leather Colorado Ron Moore winning IML in 1984.

Jeremy Morris

Des Moines, IA

A simple smile and a "oh honey just try it" was the start of an interesting and kinky journey for the yellow loving Fruffy Pup from Iowa, Jeremy Morris. Little did he know that so much would come from this one experience over the next decade of his life!

Jeremy currently resides in Des Moines, Iowa, where he lives with his pup (Pup Chia'hua'hua) and two very spoiled animals. By day, he spends his time working as a claims adjuster for a national insurance company and most of the rest of his time working for his community. Even before his time as Mr. Iowa Leather, Jeremy was known for being an advocate in Iowa, working extensively with One Iowa, The Dubuque Regional AIDS Coalition, CAAP (Community AIDS Assistance Program), The International Pageantry System, ImpactCR (an eastern Iowa young professionals organization) and many animal charities, just to name a few.

Shortly before winning Mr. Iowa Leather in October 2011, Jeremy and three others founded the Titans of the Midwest, a social kink/fetish-based organization designed around three simple principles: to educate; to cultivate; and to motivate. Jeremy currently sits as president of the organization, whose membership now spans over most midwestern states. The organization continues to grow as a place of fellowship and mentorship for all kinksters in the Midwest communities and beyond.

In March 2012, Jeremy founded an event, which in February of 2013, with the help of the executive board, would move under the Titans banner, based around bringing engaging kink education back to key spots in the community. This event became known as Kink U, the flagship event for the Titans of the Midwest. With the help of great partners within the club known as "Deans," Kink U grew from a one-city event to a multi-day, multi-city event in seven different locations. Now in its third year, it is being held or planned in ten Midwest cities with over 15 events planned for 2014.

Jeremy thanks his executive board for always being ready to work and approaching every obstacle with such passion and dedication to the future of the kink lifestyle in the Midwest. In February of 2013 Jeremy and his partner in crime, Jesse Driscoll (Mr. Midwest Rubber 2013) co-founded Team Friendly – Iowa in an effort to help reduce stigma around HIV/AIDS in the Iowa communities. The program continues to be a growing resource for education and resources in the local community.

After planning and producing his own stepdown in 2012, Jeremy was asked by the contest owners to stay on as producer. At the helm, Iowa Leather weekend has continued to grow, celebrating twenty-five years and the addition of the first Ms. Iowa Leather contest in 2013. Jeremy would like to invite everyone to Iowa for the 26th annual Iowa Leather weekend Oct 10-12, 2014, in Des Moines.

Justin Terry-Smith

Laurel, MD

Justin, AKA Mister J, has been a human rights activist in the Washington DC/Baltimore area since 1999. He is an avid and outspoken leather switch with the right balance of sado-masochism for all. He is originally from Silver Spring, Maryland, but now resides in Laurel, Maryland, with his husband Dr. Philip Terry-Smith (married Aug 7, 2009) and son. A United States Air Force veteran, he was honorably discharged with awards and decorations in 2003. Justin is one of the founders and an associate member of the ONYX Mid-Atlantic. He is also an associate of the DC boys of leather and the Mid-Atlantic Kennel Korps.

In 2008, Justin created Justin's HIV Journal to advocate for HIV/AIDS education, prevention and awareness. In his journal he tells people about the trials and tribulations when it comes to living with HIV/AIDS. After being named Mr. Maryland Leather 2010, he authored the HIV-themed children's book called I Have A Secret, a story about a young boy living with HIV. He is currently working on his second book called Foster Parent Moments.

In 2012 Justin was awarded the Pantheon of Leather Mid-Atlantic Regional Award. He also writes an advice column called Just*in Time for A&U, America's AIDS Magazine, and created his HIV campaign called Write A Letter to HIV Campaign. He also is in Graduate School for his Master's in Public Health. Justin also writes a column called Mister J's Living In Leather'for the Leather Journal and has a blog named Mister J's Living In Leather.

He co-produces the Mr. PW's Leather contest that will continue next year. Justin is always looking to play as much as he works ... hard ... really hard.

Andrea Zanella

Venice, Italy

Andrea is a high school art history teacher who, since 2011, is the Chairman of Leather Friend Italia, a club now entering its fifth year. The club has roots going back to a former leather club with a 20-year history. Along with six close friends, Leather Friends Italia was formed and now organizes and holds parties on a regular basis in Italy. They are proud to partner with Leather Club Roma in organizing the Mr. Leatherman Italia and Mr. Rubber Italy contests.

In November 2013 he organized the Annual General Meeting of ECMC and the election of Mr. Leather Europe. In spite of numerous challenges, after six months of planning, the Italian fetish community welcomed the European clubs to celebrate.

Andrea enjoys travel throughout Europe as it helps him keep in good contact with the other clubs, make new friends, and keep in contact with others. Sharing the same view on Gay life is a great experience for him. Meeting so many different people gives him the opportunity to broaden his point of view. He strongly believes that life is so very colorful—and so is our community: a shimmering mosaic piece within a great work of art that life gives to us as a present.

Andrea feels very lucky to have met some of his closest and dearest friends within the Leather community. With them he has the possibility to have all of these great experiences. They have shown him what Leather brotherhood is all about.

Andrea is very happy and excited to be part of the IML judging panel for 2014. For him, it will be a great event where he can make new friends and learn much from the many communities represented.

TALLY MASTERS

IML 36

Amy Marie Meek

Omaha, NE

Grateful resident of the World's Greatest Secret, Omaha, Nebraska, Amy Marie was the co-founder of The Omaha Players Club and Queer Nation-Nebraska and was very involved with the Imperial Court system. Amy Marie became Ms. Leather Nebraska 1992, Int'l Ms. Leather 1992 (okay, really 1993) and during that time she worked very hard getting the men's and women's communities to work together.

She then was blessed to own, care for and produce IMsL for the next 12 years, and was the creator of the International Ms. Bootblack contest. She served on the Steering Committee and was a Member/Midwest Regional Coordinator for the March On Washington 1993, was Pantheon of Leather Reader's Choice Woman of the Year 1994 and is a proud Angel of Perpetual Indulgence.

Amy Marie was the first woman to ever judge IML in 1996 and then was invited back in 2000. She was IDL 2001 Person of the Year and has had the honor of judging many contests in US and Canada. She is most proud of the 400+ workshops presented over the past 28 years that have been helpful in continuing her BDS/m heritage and lifestyle. "My family is my heart and soul." She is now bottoming to the Leather Archives and the newly established Women's Leather History Project.

Amy Marie is fond of saying, "If you are not having fun, go home or ask someone!"

Danny Tamez

Neptune Township, NJ

Danny is a proud member of the New Jersey Leather and Kink Community and is a strong advocate for leather folk gathering face to face in a variety of arenas to promote the exchange of ideas, learn our history, foster brotherhood, and share in kinky fun. He has played a leadership role in ForePlay, a leather/kink block party that for over six years kicked off New Jersey's Pride celebrations and he is the founder of the monthly Sinner Sundays promoting a little fun and fundraising in Asbury Park.

As Mr. New Jersey Leather 2012, Danny's fundraising efforts have benefitted a variety of agencies and organizations, including The Center in Asbury Park, Making It Possible To End Homelessness, The Leather Archives & Museum, The Carter Johnson Library, The Prevention Resource Network, and the City of Asbury Park Sandy Relief Funds, to name a few. He is most proud of his work for LGBTQ youth in New Jersey, and is a founding board member of the Monmouth County Consortium of LGBTQ Youth. Danny is happy to be a part of the newly opened Asbury Park LGBTQ Teen Drop in Center, giving New Jersey LGBTQ youth a safe place to meet, learn, and to be themselves. He is also an associate member of the Jersey boys of Leather and Jersey Amazons.

Danny is thankful for the constant support from his boy john, his Daddies Sal and Dion and the NJ Leather Family. This is Danny's second year as a Tally Master for IML.

FAREWELL

Andy Cross, International Mr. Leather 2013

Someone recently asked me what my favorite memory was about this past year and how my life has changed since becoming International Mr. Leather. My answer wasn't about a recent trip or favorite leather weekend or even one of the great personal connections I've made these past twelve months. It was this same event exactly one year ago.

The International Mr. Leather contest changed my life in almost every way. It expanded my sense of family and community and self. It's given me confidence as well as humility. It's given me the opportunity to see places and do things that otherwise would remain unknown to me. Best of all, because of this title, I have met some of the greatest people on the planet.

The people I have met because of this incredible experience are constant inspirations to me. It is rare that a day goes by that I don't have some sort of contact with my Class of 2013 brothers. They are by far the very best support system. They continually impress me with their passion and dedication and by the sheer amount of love they show for each other and their communities.

The best thing is that, aside from the title, International Mr. Leather gave me these gifts that kept revealing themselves throughout the year. People who might have been quick acquaintances are now friends, and people we were friends are now family. It was a constant reminder that this isn't a one-man venture. We are in this together. And, like most things I suppose, it just keeps getting better.

Thank you very much for allowing me to hold this prestigious title and experiencing all that came with it.

FAREWELL

Sammy, International Mr. Bootblack 2013

This has been an amazing journey and I want to thank everyone for making it so incredible. I experienced great joy in molesting a lot of leather across North America and am so excited to do more in the years to come. I have grown a lot this year and I want to thank all the people who could help guide me as I took this journey around our community. I could not have done it alone.

I want to give a warm thank you to all the people who allowed me to stay with them during my travels. Each of these wonderful hosts were a highlight of my year. I want to give a special thank you to Andy, Carlton, Sarha and the rest of our international family and current title holders for a wonderful year filled with fun and laughter and doing what we stepped up to do. I also want to give a huge thank you to all the title holders who have paved the way, making it possible for me to be who I am today.

Most importantly I want to thank my replacement for taking my torch for the year to come.

To everyone, thank you for the 'ride of a lifetime.' I can't wait to see where the adventure leads to next.

DANCING ABOUT ARCHITECTURE

by Marc "Moose" Moder

JOIN IN THE CHANT

As Spring tries very hard (but not hard enough) to arrive, some boys are said to turn their fancy to love. Well in Chicago on Memorial Day weekends, there's very little emphasis on "boys" or "turning" anything "fancy." IML/Memorial Day weekend is primal and manly, and as someone who's DJed the main room for our beloved Leather weekend, I'll tell you, it's the biggest time of year to refer back to the industrial music of old. Maybe it's the poppers, or all the sexy Germans in town, but industrial music sees a renaissance every IML. If you're hosting your own get-together this weekend, or just want to chat with Klaus about culture but are too young to be down with the '80s musical movement, here's a quick beginner's guide to the genre.

While the roots of Industrial started in the '70s with Throbbing Gristle and Cabaret Voltaire, for me it all starts with Einstürzende Neubauten. The German band was literally industrial as many of their instruments were tools and machinery, often played to sound like construction work. It's not as daunting and pretentious as it sounds, and is often quite fascinating and sexy, but usually won't fill a dance floor.

By the mid-80s the majority of the gay club community started embracing the genre on the dance floors as influences from New Order and Kraftwerk filtered into the scene. Chicago's own Ministry started out as a very frothy (and enjoyable) synth outfit on Arista before turning the tables toward the industrial metal sound with subsequent releases.

In the gay clubs, Front 242 had two huge hits on Chicago's Wax Trax with the very aggressive "Headhunter" and the religiously provocative "Welcome To Paradise," which filled the floors every time. British act Nitzer Ebb for the first few albums also fell into the gay club vibe with "Control I'm Here" and "Join In the Chant," the latter even a hit remake by drag superstar Kevin Aviance.

Then there was the campy side of industrial. While still sexy and aggressive at times, bands like My Life With the Thrill Kill Kult, KMFDM, and Lords of Acid never took themselves as seriously as the previously mentioned acts, often ratcheting up the religious iconography, sexual exploitation and drug references to the max, almost to the point of John Waters' proportions. Even Waters' ingénue Divine had a single on the Wax Trax label.

Industrial eventually did what EDM is doing now and got more and more greedy and major-label-oriented, veering away from the gay underground and into Lollapalooza with Nine Inch Nails having top 10 hit albums and Nitzer Ebb signing with David Geffen, leading eventually to its demise and back to the underground. Now industrial is a shadow of its former self and newer acts blend with old retro stars sitting on the same shelf with metal and goth: an underground, but passé sub-genre waiting and hoping for a breath of life. Until then, '80s industrial still sounds as fresh and groundbreaking as it was then—the sign of a truly great moment in music history.

FUN DICK MYTHS
SUCH AS THE MYSTERY OF THE DISEMBODIED PENIS
by Madame Bubby

In Greek mythology, Kronos, son of the god Uranus (which essentially means "heaven" in Greek), castrated his father and threw his dick into the sea. Aphrodite, goddess of love, rose from the sea where Uranus's penis had fertilized the waters. So much for heavenly love, or filial love, for that matter. It's all about sex and power.

In ancient Egyptian mythology, Typhon (also known as Seth, god of chaos) slew Osiris (dismembering him) and kept his dick as a souvenir. To honor Osiris, his wife Isis mandated that the phallus be an object for worship. Osiris did get put back together again. I wonder if they found the dick.

According to Roman mythology, Rome was founded by the offspring of a disembodied dick and a servant girl (the dick appeared one day in the fireplace of of the king of the Albanii and he ordered his daughter to copulate with the dick; the princess sent her maid instead). Her two sons, the twins Romulus and Remus, became the fathers of Rome.

According to Chinese legend, the tyrant king Chou-hsin could walk around a room with women perched on his erection because it was so big and strong. He would be a macrophile's delight. He would fuck ten women every night, but only edge out, so as not to "lose the Vital Essence." When he became impotent, he beheaded the medical advisor who told him to do that. An appropriate punishment: I can't get my cock head up, so I will cut off your literal head.

Note all the emphasis on dismemberment in the above stories (and another name for penis is "member").

Not that I am encouraging any kind of Freudian castration fantasy based on the above stories; rather, I think they pretty much show the primal power of the dick: cut it off, and you are basically dead. Be fertile and multiply. Spread that seed.

In contrast, St. Paul, who didn't want people to have sex because he was certain the world was ending any minute, didn't so much advocate cutting off the "member," which is what happens in these myths, as he calls it in his epistle to Romans, chapter six, but by repressing that urge you would be dead to the world and thus dead to sin/sex. Guess what, Paul? The world didn't end.

Confessions of a Nunn

by Jerry Nunn

Spit N Leather

by Channel 1 Releasing
Starring Andrew Lennox and Gunnar Nielson

Jerry Nunn: It's that time of year again when the leather daddies come out!
Diablo: I can't believe it's Memorial Day weekend and we have bear-ly got through winter.
JN: This is an older video from Catalina Video but I wanted a strong leather theme in celebration of this special issue.

JUDGING A PORN BY ITS COVER

On location in the back room of a bar with beer all around, two rugged men entertain themselves.

JN: This movie grabs the balls and runs with it!
D: Is that an artsy camera angle shooting between tables legs?
JN: Seems like it. The director is using the mirror reflection now.
D: That's an old trick.
JN: I see a lot of spitting already.
D: It's closing time but not for his ass.
JN: The quality is very grainy so far.
D: He's shooting just from a tongue bath.
JN: I wonder if Andrew Lennox is any relation to Annie?
D: [Sings] "Wet Dreams are made of this. Who am I to disagree?"

A new cast in a chain-covered room sparks scene two.

JN: The classic leather-cap-wearing bottom boy bites the crotch that feeds him!
D: His booty is being slapped over his faded and torn jeans.
JN: That uncut hot dog rolls into a bun very well.
D: He's yelling at Mark O'Neil now.
JN: Watch him hump dry air as he misses his mouth.
D: Check out the hole in the bench, just big enough for his penis to jab through.
JN: Wait, does Mark have a wedding ring on?
D: It's going to slip off with all the jizz flying in the room!
JN: It definitely sprayed all over his sporty leather cap.
D: I hope a bootblack can buff it out.

Back behind bars, Thom Barron and Tom Matthews enjoy some fun.

D: It's Thom-on-Tom action!
JN: Well, blonde Thom with an H has a lot of skin on the scrotum.
D: It's a rubber Plastic Man penis.
JN: Now that could be fun, if it were only true.
D: I do like his tan body and leather vest.

The finale ends with goatee wearing Mike Vespa taming Andrew Lennox in a cage.

JN: This is such a strange montage of images to begin the end of the movie.
D: Look, it's a Lennox in a box.
JN: He's keeping that dick on a leash.
D: Wouldn't that hurt having a chain wrapped around your penis?
JN: I think that's the idea.
D: He's taming that dog!
JN: With a choke collar.
D: I just noticed there is no penetration in this film.
JN: Those shiny pleather pants are a staple down at the Market.
D: They would just slide off except sweat makes them stick to the wearer's body.

JN: Going for special angles to create a unique shot got old real fast.
D: I know, is this an art school film?
JN: This Spit has an old school flavor to it!

Nunn's Golden Rule:
Spit and shine your best leather outfit before hitting the Market with a little Armor All and slide all the way home.

Final Judgement:
Jerry Nunn: Crucifix down.
Diablo: Pitchfork down.

Spit N shove your way over to www.c1r.com to tie up this adult video and more.

For a little live action visit the IML Leather Market at the Marriott, May 23-26 with info at imrl.com.
